Learn Ya Good!

September is right around the corner. September means lots of things are starting. Confirmation, committee meetings, Men's Club, and most importantly, Sunday School.

Sunday School is a relatively new invention. Luther didn't do it, nor did the old Fathers from the early days. Non Lutheran Americans came up with this, and we stole it (we do that sometimes). The principle is simple: In addition to hearing the Word of God read and preached, we study the Word of God and talk about what it says as a group so that we might better understand it. We do it as a group so we can swap stories, ideas, things we've heard, etc.

For children, this is a simple introduction to the stories of the Bible, getting them used to hearing who Abraham was, what Moses did, David and Goliath, that kind of thing. It usefully sets the stage for Confirmation, where the students learn what all of these stories tell us and what we're supposed to learn from them.

For adults, this is our time to strengthen our bonds between each other and explore both the history of the church (I'm good at that part) and what a particular book means (depending on the book, I'm sometimes good at that part. Just don't ask me about Zechariah). The Bible is a book written two thousand plus years ago to people in a very different culture and mindset. It can be tricky to understand what we 21st century Americans are to learn from it for that reason.

We know the basics. The Bible is the Word of God, all of it, every single syllable. We know that the Bible is there to teach us that we are sinners, and that God works to save each and every generation from their sins. The entire Bible is about Jesus and what He will eventually do (or did do, in the case of the New Testament).

Find the whole thing confusing? Come to Sunday School. We'll clear some of that up. The Bible leaves us with plenty of mysteries, but one thing is clear: It is the Word of God, and it is there to teach us and guide us just as much as it did Luther, Walther, St. John, Moses, and all the saints throughout the ages.

Faith is a matter of the heart, the soul, rather than the intellect or brain. A child's faith is deeply simple and unintellectual, yet that faith is held up as an example for us. An infant knows his mother, her voice, her smell, and her touch. The infant can explain none of this, but none doubt that baby knows mom. Blessed is the mind too small for doubt.

Despite these truths, God commands us to train our minds as well as our hearts. Paul says this in Ephesians 4: "And he gave the apostles, the prophets, the evangelists, the shepherds and teachers,<sup>12</sup> to equip the saints for the work of ministry, for building up the body of Christ, <sup>13</sup> until we all attain to the unity of the faith and of the knowledge of the Son of God, to mature manhood, to the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ, <sup>14</sup> so that we may no longer be children, tossed to and fro by the waves and carried about by every wind of doctrine, by human cunning, by craftiness in deceitful schemes."

Build up your minds with us these coming Sundays, brothers and sisters! Sunday School begins

Elder's Report

As I write the September edition of the Elder's Corner, I can't help but wonder where the summer has gone.

I would like to go back to an important event from this past summer and talk about an important event coming this fall. People will try and tell you politics and religion don't mix, it couldn't be farther from the truth. This country was started on these two ideas: Religion and Political Freedom.

With the Supreme Court's overturning of "Roe vs Wade" this summer, prayers have been answered and lives will be saved. If we believe life is sacred and a gift from GOD, how can one be pro-choice. If we believe the bible is God's word, and the fifth commandment says "Thou shall not kill," how can one be pro-choice?

It is election time again this fall, don't be complacent or apathetic, do your duty and VOTE! Take some time and study the candidates running for office. Vote for candidates that reflect our Christian values, universal school choice, pro-life, and one's that don't get bullied into going along on transgender and gay marriage issues. These are difficult topics to talk about and stand firm on, but we MUST! The Lord tells us to be strong and courageous in our faith. He also tells us to hate the sin but love the sinner.

Psalm 33:12 reads, "Blessed is the nation whose God is the Lord." Pray for our country and our leaders. Pray that they will consult God and the bible when making decisions for us all. God Bless America!

It's Back to School

Every year there's a list of projects that go on during the summer months to improve the campus here at Sheboygan Lutheran High. Without exception, this summer saw updates and additions in every corner.

The girls' Fastpitch Softball Field, pictured below, which was an Auction Fund-A-Cause dream, came to reality! With a generous donation from Mr. Jay Christopher, plans were laid over the past year for a stellar field in the NW corner of the LHS campus. The fence is up, the grass is growing, and the scoreboard stands waiting! It will be beautiful come spring. Watch for our Christopher Field dedication in March 2023.

The grounds around campus look great! Thank you to the volunteers for their many hours of mowing and landscaping to keep our property looking spectacular!

Another project was to enlarge the Commons to accommodate more lunch tables for more students. We moved the walk-in cooler and freezer to a room across the hall, and then 'freshened up the place'. Thank you to a group of volunteers for painting and decorating to enhance the cafeteria.

The room across the hall was a conference room that served as a place for student tutoring and small meetings. Since it is now home to the cooler, freezer and storage, we renovated the "old distance learning lab" once again to accommodate two small tutoring labs and a small conference/team room equipped with a video monitor.

Upgrades to the internet infrastructure and security of our building with more camera access and key fobs are also in the works.

So with over 200 students and some new faculty members, we're settling in for another great year. We have so many things to be thankful for.

We are thankful for all of our volunteers and supporters! The extra helping hands make the load lighter. We're thankful for our families who choose to send their children to us to educate with a Christ-centered curriculum. We're thankful for the teachers who share and uphold strong values and lead as role models for our children. We are thankful that we can provide a safe environment to learn. And thankful that we have this great building known as Sheboygan Lutheran High to take good care of.

We welcome everyone back to school! We're looking forward to another great year of Preparing Christian Leaders — One Student at a Time.

In His Service,

Paul W. Gnan, Executive Director

CONFESSING CHRIST FOR THE NEXT GENERATION

Mission work is the core of what the church is and does. After all, "the Son of Man came to seek and to save the lost" (Luke 19:10). And He continues to seek and save the lost through His bride, the church.

There was a time when "mission" brought up exotic images of missionaries sharing the Gospel with natives in far-away lands. We still do that, but today those far-away lands are sending God's people here to share the Gospel, too!

We are pleased to use resources from our congregations to reach out in the name of Jesus to people all over our District. Rural, suburban, urban: we have it all in the SWD. Immigrants from Africa and Asia, Hispanic friends from dozens of nations, the incarcerated and the deaf...we have been given opportunities to reach them with the precious Gospel. We are privileged to support SWD congregations in their outreach efforts, and we are honored to resource ministries on their behalf. For a more detailed description of the current ministries that your District mission dollars support, explore our mission partnerships.

Together we are seeing the mission field surrounding us and, in witness of the gospel, we are impacting our changing and diverse communities.

Fruit or false

Spotting true fruits can be tricky. Thankfully, it's much easier to spot the fruit of the Spirit.

Directions: Determine whether each item is a fruit or vegetable and circle the correct letter. Then insert the letters in order below to complete the verses.

|          | Fruit | Vegetable |            | Fruit | Vegetable |
|----------|-------|-----------|------------|-------|-----------|
| Apple    | V     | P         | Pepper     | O     | U         |
| Carrot   | E     | O         | Spinach    | R     | S         |
| Tomato   | Y     | R         | Watermelon | H     | P         |
| Grape    | C     | F         | Broccoli   | G     | N         |
| Eggplant | T     | D         | Pumpkin    | T     | Y         |
| Celery   | I     | N         | Pear       | F     | C         |
